

ARA ZOHRABYAN MET THE MAYOR OF GYUMRI

14.07.2014 13:00

On 11 July, 2014 The Chairman of the Chamber of Advocates Ara Zohrabyan met the Mayor of Gyumri Samvel Balasanyan. The Chairman and the Mayor discussed the questions of providing the advocates with the offices in Gyumri free of charge who do not have them. Instead of it the advocates once a month will give free consultations to inhabitants of the town and Marz. According to Ara Zohrabyan. 38 advocates are acting in Shirak Marz and 36 of which act only in Gyumri. 6 advocates are not provided with offices in Gyumri and it is necessary to give them opportunity to have an activity.

Mayor Samvel Balasanyan highlighted the necessity of advocacy service and mentioned that it is important to restore the belief of Gyumri earthquake survivors who lost it.

In its turn Ara Zohrabyan mentioned that the territory will be furnished by the means of the Chamber and comfortable conditions will be made for both the citizens and advocates.

Within the frameworks of the visit to Gyumri the Chairman of the Chamber also met the advocates of the region and discussed the available issues. Ara Zohrabyan spoke about the noise risen against Susanna Mkhitarian. By his words, The Chamber of Advocates is standing next to each advocate and will protect his violated rights during his advocacy.

Simultaneously the elections of the coordinator of Shirak Marz took place on 11 July. As a result the coordinator of Shirak Marz is elected the advocate Hayk Harutyun Harutyunyan.
