

LAWS THAT KILL BUSINESS; "WITH A CLEAR HEAD" WITH SEDRAK ASATRYAN

10.10.2016 21:05

Everybody is inclined to think that in order to support business inspections should be decreased; in fact, it's not an option. To support business it is to give it tools and guarantees to defend itself, for example, against unscrupulous tax inspectors. In legal sense there are plenty of reefs hindering business, that will never allow even the most technocrat, most educated and honest minister and vice-president to develop economy. The pre-investment organ in the structure of SRC, 205-th article, the bill of calling the artificial person to criminal responsibility; this is just the short list of tools that are to kill business. About the following ones is to tell "with a clear head" the partner manager of the "Concern Dialog" law firm Sedrak Asatryan.

```
BACK $(window).load(function(){ if(typeof $(".fb_comments_count").html() != "undefined" && parseInt($(".fb_comments_count").html()) != 0){ updateCommentsCount(window.location.href); } })
```